CT	Fairfield	Northern Fairfield Professionals Network	Knights of Columbus Building- 46 Church Hill Road, Newtown, CT 06470	2nd Tuesday of every month from 5:30-8pm	John Barry (john@itechcp.com) or Amanda Blair (amanda@itechcp.com)	Northern Fairfield Professionals (NFP) is where people meet to expand their network connections, as well as learn the tools needed to advance their careers. Business professionals employed and in transition are welcome. Our philosophy is to build reciprocal relationships where business professionals can exchange ideas, job leads, and build networking skills. We usually have a guest speaker discuss a topic of interest for business professionals. Please go in the entrance for Saint Rose church and drive in back of the church to the far left. The building has 3 garage doors on the first floor with the meeting room upstairs. The entrance is the door on the left front of the building.

Advice and networking follows. Led by facilitators Ed McEneney, Tom Tilston and Sal Pizzurro. This ministry of St. Patrick's provides support for individuals and their families who are experiencing an employment crisis, by identifying and channeling available resources which can best assist them in their time of need. The group works through its bi-monthly insert in their bulletin and monthly meetings. The insert "Employment Exchange" provides a listing of available jobs and positions plus the opportunity to advertise one's skills and availability.
